

2.) Spring Ranch

Romance, seclusion, and adventure await at this unbelievably gorgeous site on the Pacific Coast. Spring Ranch is an historic treasure, a former cattle ranch created by early pioneer William Kent that is lovingly filled with character, charm, and class. Be prepared to be transformed in this spectacularly magnificent venue that sits atop dramatic bluffs with hiking, biking, and surfing directly below.

The photo opportunities alone make this spot a favorite for local wedding photographers; the ideal kissing spot is in front of the architecturally beautiful, and story-filled Wedding Barn, an 1860's hay-making facility that was relocated piece-by-piece from Canada and restored here.

With an emphasis on authenticity and relaxation, the Ranch makes living in the estate and its surrounding buildings easy with fully stocked kitchens, super comfortable beds, and many opportunities for meaningful memories!
